

Here is what you can expect in the months ahead

- A strengthened, more powerful advocacy/public education program to address domestic violence and convey the vision and mission of NOA's program and services.
- An upgraded Web site with extensive improvement, added interactivity and enhanced content.
- The same high level of family and legal advocacy you've come to expect, with even more advanced-level family advocacy programs.
- Improved communication to ensure that our supporters are fully aware of the depth, breadth and results of NOA's programs and services.

Your financial support is critical to help NOA continue to plant seeds of love, hope and courage to change the lives of many victims in our community. Supporters, friends, volunteers, community partners and donors are the backbone of NOA. Your support through donations, services, goods or time as a volunteer is critical to help victims and their children live free from violence and fear. Peace begins at home...I look forward to working with you to end domestic violence in our community. -Marina Barron, Executive Director
