

Emergency Shelter and Parenting Support

NOA maintains a three bedroom safe shelter (12 beds) for battered women and their children. This includes emergency shelter, food, personal necessities, medicines, clothing, and essential transportation. Parenting support and education is available for residents of the shelter.